FROM THE FRONT.

An Interesting Letter from the Orb Correspondent.

CAMP WOOD, San Antonio, May 23.
Talk about southern Arizona being hot, it is not far ahead of this section of the south in the matter of heat. It is true that the mercury does not climb as high as in Phoenix and vicinity, but there is so much moisture in the atmosphere that the heat is more oppressive than in Arizona. The Arizona boys say: "Gee whizz." That is not the only expression heard but will say for the reason that Webster does not define some of the other remarks.

There was a hot time in camp this morning and our branches and mustangs were training all over the country with the riders clinging to the saddles. Major Brodie took his squadron out to drill under fire. The men fired their six shooters in the air and the circus commenced. Despite the bucking of the animals the troopers kept their seats and fired their revolvers several times. The practice will be continued every day until the horses are thoroughly broken in. The sport was exciting and very much enjoyed by the boys.

The camp now presents the appearance of a "tent" alley. The first and second squadrons were issued tents yesterday and the commands moved from the big exposition hall which they have occupied since arriving here. Each man has a half of a tent which in army parlance is called shelter or "dog tent." Two men occupy a tent. The tents are laid out in company row, and last night for the first time were occupied by the men.

All the equipments for the first and second squadrons have been issued and nothing is wanting now but the command to march.

A couple of days ago each troop was again mustered into the regiment. The original muster roll of Whipple called for three years service, but there seems to have been a mistake for the president's proclamation only called for two years.

Lieutenant Colonel Roosevelt gave every man the option of being discharged from the regiment a few days ago if any felt so inclined, but to the credit of the regiment not one man availed himself of the opportunity to free himself from army life.

We now have all our equipments, including rifles, six-shooters and machetes. Our company, which is Company B, have been given sorrel horses, and some of them are dandies. The officers of our troop have been changed several times since we arrived here. The complete roster of the officers and non-commissioned officers of the troop is now as follows: Captain, J. H. McClintock; first lieutenant, George B. Wilcox; second lieutenant, Tom Rynning; sergeants, Davidson, Hawley, Campbell, Norton, Utting, Pate and D. Hughes; corporals, Lee, Gregory, Heitman, Wat-rbury, McCabe, Pemberton and McCarthy.

The boys from Bisbee are all doing nicely. We have all had our turn at guard duty, etc. Wiggins is acting as pastry cook and is becoming expert at the business. The supply of reading matter here is very short, and any old magazines, books, novels, papers, etc., that the citizens of Bisbee would send would be greatly appreciated by the boys.

We expect to go to the front via Galveston or New Orleans very shortly. Col. Roosevelt expects the orders at any time. We will write again in a few days. The boys all send their best regards to all. Yours truly, J. Rex Hall.

THE REMARKABLE CASE.

Quite a large number of our citizens, both young and old, were in attendance at the entertainment and dance given by the Daughters of Rebekah at the opera house last evening. This floor was in excellent condition and the music by Prof. Schmidt's orchestra was superb. The following short but interesting program was rendered:

Song—"Remember this Maine"—Miss Jennie Humphrey.
Declaration—Miss Grant.
Song—Miss Wittie.
Bass Solo—Mr. Cobb.
Song—"Wreck of the Battleship Maine"—Miss Nellie Hughes.

Mr. John Peterson, of Catwilla, La., was very agreeably surprised not long ago. For eighteen months he had been troubled with dysentery and had tried three of the best doctors in New Orleans, besides half a dozen or more patent medicines, but received very little relief. Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, having been recommended to him, he gave it a trial and to his great surprise, three doses of that remedy effected a permanent cure. Mr. Wm. McNamara, a well known merchant of the same place, is well acquainted with Mr. Peterson and attests to the truth of this statement. This remedy is for sale by J. S. Williams & Co., druggists. m
